

"DOES NOT SUCH A MEETING MAKE AMENDS?"

"DOES NOT SUCH A MEETING MAKE AMENDS?"

Wood engraving; illustration in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, 29 May 1869, two weeks after the railroads constructed by the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroads met in Promontory Point, Utah, completing the nation's first transcontinental railroad.

Library of Congress