General Resources:

Native Land Digital
This is an interactive map of the world that tells you whose land you're standing on, with links to language and cultural resources and tribal websites. This is a great place to start if you're working on land acknowledgements, or to build lessons that are geographically and culturally specific to your area.

American Indians in Children's Literature
A site that provides critical analysis of Indigenous people in children and young adult literature, by Dr. Debbie Reese (Nambé Pueblo) and Dr. Jean Mendoza. This is a good place to start if you are looking for resources, or have questions about the age- or cultural-propriateness of existing materials.
